Parkhurst, Haake and Kenkel all voted in favor of the motion to approve and accept the election audit.

The Supervisors then placed on the agenda a chance for any pandemic related decisions or discussion that may be needed before the regular meeting next Tuesday. Charles Parkhurst was contacted about fireworks on July 4th in Harlan. He was notified that they will be presented. Opening the Courthouse on June 17th is still on scheduled with many questions asked of the Treasurers office because of the traffic the Treasurers office receives. Appointments are being scheduled now for business at the Treasurers office. The Records office will take appointments until June 17th. Then be open for normal business. Having no further business the meeting was adjourned.

Charles Parkhurst, Chairman

ATTEST:

Mark L. Maxwell
Clerk to the Board of Supervisors
