

February 3, 2021

The Shelby County Board of Supervisors met in a special session at 1:00 P.M. at the Shelby County Courthouse with the following members present: Steve Kenkel, Charles Parkhurst, Darin Haake, and Mark Maxwell, Clerk.

The Chairperson Darin Haake asked that any conflict of interest be stated concerning any item on the agenda. None were stated.

It was moved by Kenkel, seconded by Parkhurst, to approve the agenda. Motion carried unanimously.

The Supervisors then discussed with the Auditor the funding of the Self Insurance Fund. It was agreed that the Insurance fund is fully funded at this time. To keep contributions to this fund the same, the Maximum Levy Notice will include the Self Insurance fund contributions at the same rate calculations as in the past. Decreased funding may be considered for the final budget. Discussions were held about different ways to supplement the self-insurance fund and amounts needed to be in the fund. A idea was made by Kenkel for the Supervisors to consider to fund the self-insurance fund at a lower rate saving property taxpayers approximately $90,000 in fiscal year 2022. This will be considered when the final fiscal year 2022 budget is proposed.

A hearing date was set for the Maximum Levy Hearing with the following resolution after a motion by Parkhurst and a second by Kenkel.
