Burmeister presented the following action items for Supervisor consideration. Todd Valline was asked to give an update of the Shelby County Commerce and Industry, Valline noted that last Fridays Chamber awards dinner was well attended and a great success.

Neil Gross, Shelby County Sheriff was asked to give an update for his department. The Shelby County Sheriffs Department has been in talks with the City of Harlan regarding an agreement that will share Shelby County and the City of Harlan policing duties. A public hearing will be held on March 9th at 6:00 P.M. at the CJ Therkildsen Center.

The meeting was then placed at recess to await the arrival of Department heads for an all department meeting to start at 10:00 AM.

The meeting was taken out of recess. Chairperson Kenkel Chairman Kenkel spoke to Department heads of the importance of all Shelby County Departments staying within their budgets. Rules were specific as to what is asked and expected of each department. Budgets are tight, due to past deficit spending, mainly unfunded budget amendments and transfers, but with everyone's cooperation in reducing expenses and several departments giving up reserves in order to build healthy fund balances, we will meet our budget goals for 22/23. Cuts in funding are being made in several departments for the upcoming 2024 budget year, helping us meet our target fund balances. Mark Maxwell will be resigning as Budget Director at the end of this years budget process, board will look to fill the position after July, 1st. Board appreciates everyone's cooperation and professionalism as we move through this budget process and the value each departments services provide to Shelby County.

Kenkel also spoke of legislation that may cap future growth of County budgets being proposed at the Capital in Des Moines. This hard cap will affect all County Departments as inflation continues to outgrow budgets and will continue to be an issue with Counties and Residents.

There being no further business appearing, the Chairman declared the meeting adjourned at 10:33 A.M.

ATTEST:

Mark Maxwell

Clerk to the Board of Supervisors

Steve Kenkel, Chairperson
